

Contact:
Rosemary Farao-Vernon
Phone: 805-459-9669

Denise Skidmore
(209) 631-4146

California FFA Foundation
Phone: 916-714-2970
www.caffafoundation.com

MEDIA ADVISORY
64,000 California FFA members have a place to call Home
FFA Center Opens in Galt, California

What: The California FFA, the largest high school organization, makes history with a ribbon cutting ceremony to open the FFA Center in Gal California. The FFA Center will serve as a leadership development site with state of the art technology for leadership and communication training. It includes laboratory classrooms for curriculum development, administrative offices, meeting rooms and state FFA Officer living facilities. Located on six acres, 20 miles south of Sacramento along Highway 99, the FFA Center will be the hub of operations for the organization and a home for FFA's rich heritage.

Who: More than 1,000 FFA students and supporters are expected to celebrate this milestone.

Special Guests Include: California FFA State Officers (a team of recent high school graduates selected by 63,000 state members to lead the organization)
California Department of Food and Agriculture Secretary, A.G. Kawamura
Kristi Mattes, first female California FFA member
Bob Bowman, first National FFA President from California

Where: California FFA Center, 13020 West Stockton Boulevard, Galt California

Directions: From Sacramento on Highway 99 south. Exit Twin Cities/Jackson Highway, immediate left onto Stockton Boulevard.

When: Wednesday, February 21, 2007

Interview Opportunities from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Ribbon Cutting Ceremony 11:00 a.m.

For supporting materials for this media advisory – such as photographs and the press release– please visit the website: caffafoundation.com